HILTON GARDEN INN DALLAS/LEWISVILLE
TO RAISE MONEY FOR CHILDREN'S ADVOCACY CENTER

Lewisville, Texas, June 20, 2008 – When Ryan Konz, manager of the Hilton Garden Inn Lewisville, heard about the hoards of people who in the past filled nearby parking lots to watch the city's annual fireworks show, he saw an opportunity to give back to the community.

Konz and the staff of the Hilton Garden Inn plan to barricade their lot on July 4 and allow people who aren't staying at the hotel to park there for a $5 donation to the Denton County Children's Advocacy Center. The hotel has almost 500 parking spots.

“This hotel was built to be for the community, to serve the community,” Konz said. “And so we want to continue to serve the community.”

This is the Hilton Garden Inn Lewisville's first July 4 holiday. Konz said the hotel chose the Children's Advocacy Center because its work is regional and reaches beyond the city of Lewisville.

“It serves the whole county,” he said. “It's a great organization.”

The hotel is hoping to have volunteers from the charity man their entrances. Hotel managers also are hoping to donate a percentage of the money it makes off leisure room bookings that that day.
