

Hilton Garden Inn-Dallas/Allen

(Mavis Everett, Freelance Writer 250 Word Count)

When heading north on 75 Central Expressway S., the Hilton Garden Inn looms large on the northeast horizon. It is probably the best location in town to be seen and is convenient to access. "We offer the finest venue for all banquets, social functions and corporate meetings," states Karen Cromwell, Director of Sales. "We have a terrific product that is excellent for business travelers, meeting planners and brides-to-be." Ownership and management have a clear focus to serve the community of Allen with a passion unparalleled in the industry. The Hilton Garden Inn Dallas/Allen recently won a prestigious award this past November 2007. This property was the first select service hotel to be recognized as Select Hotel of the Year by the Hotel Association of Greater Dallas at the association's first annual Hospity Award gala. "These awards are given out by our peers in the hospitality industry," said Stephen Christensen, General Manager of the HGI Dallas/Allen. "We have been the top performer for our brand in the Dallas area in guest scores." The 150-room Hilton garden Inn Dallas/Allen (including 20 suites) is conveniently located at 705 Central Expressway S. (Bethany, exit 33) 25 miles from the Dallas Fort-Worth International Airport and 30 miles from downtown Dallas. Hotel facilities include over 9,000 sq ft of flexible meeting space with a 4,200 sq ft ballroom; a heated outdoor swimming pool; a whirlpool; fitness center; patio area and 24-hour complimentary business center.
